The Edmund Rice Action Camps began in Cork this week, with another group of energetic young leaders once again bringing the camp to life. Last week, the young leaders had a series of training sessions, which included training in safeguarding from our Safeguarding Coordinator Treise Lenihan. Another ERA Camp will take place in Cobh in two weeks' time. We keep the outcome of both of the camps in our prayers.

The CLEO Annual Reunion 2017 was held in the BYM Centre recently. The topic was Faith Leadership in Catholic Schools and the focus was on how faith-leaders in primary and post-primary Catholic schools might best support each other as faith leaders. The event emphasised the importance practitioners attach to a proper preparation for, and on-going support in, the exercise of faith leadership in Catholic schools today in the Republic of Ireland. The Last Word was spoken by Rev. Dr. J. M. Feheny, FPM, Founder and first Director of CLEO, who reminded the gathering that it was precisely to provide training for faith-based leadership in faith-based schools that CLEO was established 25 years ago.
